Section A
Nature of the H-2A Application

1. Select one of the following options to indicate the type of application being filed for temporary employment certification. Mark only one box.
  - Individual Employer: Select this option if the application is being filed by or on behalf of one employer (non-association).
  - Joint Employer: Select this option if the application is being filed by or on behalf of two or more employers (non-association).
  - Association – Sole Employer: Select this option if the application is being filed by an agricultural association that will be the sole employer.
  - Association – Joint Employer: Select this option if the application is being filed by an agricultural association as a joint employer with each of the employer-members named on the application (i.e., a “master” application).
  - Association – Agent: Select this option if the application is being filed by an agricultural association acting as an agent (identified in Section D of the application) on behalf of employer-member(s).

Important Note: An agricultural association means any nonprofit or cooperative association of farmers, growers, or ranchers (including but not limited to processing establishments, canneries, gins, packing sheds, nurseries, or other similar fixed-site agricultural employers), incorporated or qualified under applicable State law, that recruits, solicits, hires, employs, furnishes, houses, or transports any worker that is subject to 8 U.S.C. 1188. 20 CFR 655.103. The association must retain documentation substantiating the employer or agency status of the association and be prepared to submit such documentation in response to a Notice of Deficiency (NOD) from the Certifying Officer (CO) prior to issuing a final labor certification decision, or in the event of an audit. 20 CFR 655.131(a).
2. Select “Yes” or “No” to indicate if the employer requesting certification is operating as an H-2A Labor Contractor (H-2ALC). Pursuant to 20 CFR 655.103(b), an H-2ALC is defined as any person who meets the definition of employer and is not a fixed-site employer, an agricultural association, or an employee of a fixed-site employer or agricultural association, as those terms are defined in 20 CFR 655.103(b), who recruits, solicits, hires, employs, furnishes, houses, or transports any worker subject to 8 U.S.C. 1188, 29 CFR part 501, or 20 CFR 655, subpart B.
3. Select one of the following options to indicate the nature of the employer’s temporary need for the services or labor to be performed. Only one standard of temporary need may be selected.
  - SEASONAL – Select this option where the employer’s need for agricultural services or labor is tied to a certain time of the year by an event or pattern, such as a short annual growing cycle or a specific aspect of a longer cycle, requiring labor levels far above those necessary for ongoing operations. 20 CFR 655.103(d).

H-2A Application for Temporary Employment Certification
Form ETA-9142A – General Instructions
U.S. Department of Labor

OTHER TEMPORARY NEED – Select this option where the employer’s need for agricultural services or labor IS NOT seasonal and is expected to last no longer than 1 year, except in extraordinary circumstances. 20 CFR 655.103(d).

4. Select “Yes” or “No” to indicate whether a statement explaining how the employer’s need for the agricultural services or labor to be performed is temporary in nature is attached to the application. Unless the nature of the employer’s need is clearly seasonal, attach a statement that clearly describes the employer’s temporary need for the services or labor to be performed. The employer’s statement must explain (a) the nature of the employer’s business or operations, (b) why the job opportunity and number of workers being requested for certification reflect a temporary need, and (c) how the employer’s request for the services or labor to be performed meets the seasonal need standard or otherwise qualifies as temporary.

Important Note: If the employer is filing the application electronically and marks “YES”, the system will require the employer to upload an electronic document or statement demonstrating temporary need in order for the application to be submitted for processing.

5. If the application is submitted less than 45 days before the employer’s date of need, select “Yes” or “No” to indicate whether the employer’s application is being filed with a request to waive the regulatory time period due to an emergency situation. Pursuant to 20 CFR 655.134(a), the CO may waive the time period for filing for employers who did not make use of temporary alien agricultural workers during the prior year’s agricultural season or for any employer that has other good and substantial cause (which may include unforeseen changes in market conditions), provided that the CO has sufficient time to test the domestic labor market on an expedited basis to make the determinations required by §655.100.

Important Note: A request for waiver of the time period for filing requires the employer to concurrently submit to the Certifying Officer and the SWA serving the area of intended employment: a completed Form ETA-9142A; a completed job order, i.e., Form ETA-790A; and a statement justifying the request for waiver of the time period requirement. See 20 CFR 655.134.

6. FOR EMERGENCY SITUATIONS: If the employer marked “Yes” to Question A.5 indicating that the application IS being filed due to an emergency situation, please select “Yes” or “No” to indicate whether a statement justifying the employer’s emergency situation is attached to the application.

Important Note: Pursuant to 20 CFR 655.134(b), an employer must submit, at the time of filing, a statement justifying the request for a waiver of the time period requirement. The statement must indicate whether the waiver request is due to the fact that the employer did not use H-2A workers during the prior agricultural season or whether the request is for good and substantial cause. If the waiver is requested for good and substantial cause, the employer’s statement must also include detailed information describing the good and substantial cause which has necessitated the waiver request. Good and substantial cause may include, but is not limited to, the substantial loss of U.S. workers due to weather-related activities or other reasons, unforeseen events affecting the work activities to be performed, pandemic health issues, or similar conditions.

FOR NON-EMERGENCY SITUATIONS: If the employer marked “No” to Question A.5 indicating that this application IS NOT being filed due to an emergency situation, please mark “N/A”.
